VOL. IV. NO. 162.

CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, JULY 10-11, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

AS TO DECLARATIONS.

The following notice, signed "J. Howard, Secretary," is posted in the Washington Park paddock: "Beginning with the races Monday, July 11, the declaration fee in fields of four or less horses will be 25 per cent of the first money of the purse." The idea of this is to make it costly to scratch away from a good horse, as in the case of the four-horse race on Friday wherein Macy was engaged.

William McGuigan declared that the charging of 25 per cent was not constitutional. The ordinary scratching fee is 5 per cent of the purse, and this is so stated in the Washington Park book.

"But cannot each track make its own rules?" was asked.

"No," emphatically replied McGuigan. "Such was formerly the case, but now the Turf Congress decides that the racing rules supercede even race conditions."

[In this Mr. McGuigan is probably in error. The rule says declarations "must be accompanied by five (5) per cent of the first money." This prevents a lower per cent being charged, but it does not prohibit a greater per cent.]

IMP DEFEATS MACY.

Saratoga weather and a racing card said by Ed Austin to be the best and most spectacular offered this year in the west, attracted a crowd of 10,000 people to Washington Park. The Macy-Imp contest was responsible for much of the interest, and while in town 7 to 10 Macy and even money Imp were the prices obtainable, "9 to 10 take your pick" was offered in large amounts on the trains going to the course. Some persons were of the opinion that a race at 11-16 miles, 10 pounds below the scale, would have produced a better race. The question of Imp's ability to stay at 11-18 miles being decided in the negative by the betting odds, Macy going to the post at 13-20 while 13-10 was Imp's average price.

Macy, on the inside, was hand ridden away from the post, Tommy Burns trying to keep the track. Caywood, on Imp, took the rail on the club house turn, and at the quarter was daylight to the good, the three-eighths being covered in 36½ seconds. The black filly seemed to be going the easier of the two and reached the half in 48 seconds. Still on she sailed passing the five-eighths in 1:04, the three-quarters in 1:14, the seven-eighths in 1:27. Here the run for home began, and Burns went at the favorite with the whip. Thus urged, Macy closed somewhat at the mile (1:39½) and the cry arose, "she will stop" as Caywood began to hunch the mare along. But, hand ridden, she lived out the odd eighth, winning with considerable to spare.

As some $500 bets were registered, it is presumed the Schorr party lost heavily. The public, almost to a man, bet on Imp, and Frank Latterman won largely by her victory.

The first race was one of those surprises occasioned when the best horses in the race hook up, run their heads off and quit to a walk. To the best start of the meeting the five horses were always closely together, but Hurly Butly and Dave Waldo got two lengths in front after running three-eighths, first one and then the other alternating in the lead. Entering the straight Hewitt got through on the rail and at the betting ring Traverser looked all over a winner, although the four others abreast were only one length behind. Bangle ran the gamut finish and won, while Traverser quit close home and The Manxman secured the place.

Goodrich was a windfall for the bookmakers through his win of the Midway Selling Stakes and David Tenny's second also proved to them a bonanza, as Fonsavannah and Boanerges were both carrying the public money straight and place. All the horses drove away from the post to an excellent start, Martha II leading into the backstretch, with Fonsavannah second, Boanerges third and Goodrich last. Soon Martha II was done and Boanerges got through on the rail and led the pack. Fonsavannah had been outside of Martha II, but now shot by her and tagged Boanerges for a furlong, then dropped back beaten and David Tenny made play. At the last three-sixteenths post Boanerges, hand ridden, was just clear of David Tenny and Goodrich joined issues at the bleaching boards, where lapped, the three placed horses were under whip and spur. Thorpe had saved ground on the turn and in the crucial test this "short way around the track" stood Goodrich in good stead, as in the greatest finish of the meeting, he ran first, David Tenny getting second place.

Indra as usual delayed the start. Up to this race everything had worked smoothly, the starter being complimented for his work. Dwyer at last got the horses away, with Indra in as good position as such horse deserves. Cash Day and Yuba Dam set the pace, running paired at the half mile ground, Lew Hopper third, Indra fifth, some lengths behind the leaders, Inconstancy, a sixteenth out of the race. At the middle of the homestretch there was a general closing up and Lew Hopper and Indra in front at the last sixteenth raced side and side for a time, then Brenock's horse drew away and won easily, while J H C gave Indra a losing argument for the place.

Santello opened up at 6 to 5, advanced to 2 to 1 and then ran third in the race after getting off well. Survivor was off in front but Spirituelle, whose price had shrunk from 8 to 5 to 6 to 5 because of Mr. T. C. McDowell's statement, "My filly is good," soon shot away from the bunch as if to make a runaway race. Jolly Roger, well rated by Thorpe, got to her at the betting ring, and Donahue's colt had no trouble in winning. A strong play was made on him at the post. Some said Santello was cut off, but others cried: "When the Californians do a thing, they do it well."

Found, on sufferance, led from Dunois until "Skeets" Martin got ready to go on, when the favorite took command and galloped home. Pearl Walker came fast through the homestretch and ran third. This race was spoiled by the withdrawal of the record breaker, Floronso.

R. Respass has reached Washington Park from Latonia with six head of horses of his own and one horse belonging to Clay & Woodford. W. S. Hopkins brought up Azucena, the property of Geo. J. Long of the Bashford Manor Farm, and Doyle and McGuire came in with Eddie Burke. Mr. Doyle formerly owned the fast mare Sister Mary.

It was "cut in" day and twenty-one bookmakers occupied the stools. The draw-in was for two days and Tuesday next W. E. Applegate and other Latonia pencils are expected to take a chance at a game where up to date few concerns are winner, and "Kid" Weller is said to have amassed more coin than all the rest put together.

Caywood, on Boanerges, was squeezed in between Goodrich and David Tenny at the finish and had his ankle skinned. Both Poole and Coulter thought that the crowding could not have been the cause of Boanerges' defeat, saying: "He was beaten before the accident happened."

Riley Grannan and Charley Quinn bet on Jolly Roger at 10 to 1 and won a large amount of money.

There are two Australian bookmakers—Archibald and Jackman—and both lay liberal odds.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Hanover—Pomona. Start good. Won driving. Handpress was lucky and well handled. The damp going suited him. He was stopping at the end. Is very ordinary. Atlantis had no chance with his ride. He closed a big gap the last half and was best. Alarum was short, but ran well. Siffleur dislikes the track conditions.

Scratched—Howard S., 114.

Loiter liked the going and ran a fair race. He is very small. Subject swerved all over the last eighth. Should improve. St. Clair ran fairly. Passaic is of no account.

Scratched—Muggins, 112; Passe Partout, 109; Tendresse, 109; St. Sophia, 99; Maid of Harlem, 99.

Time, 26, 51½, 1:03½, 1:16, 1:42½.

Winner—B. h. 5, by Pirate of Penzance—Song. Start good. Won badly. Rondo was favored by the soft going and perfectly handled. He came unexpectedly fast in the stretch after appearing to be in trouble on the stretch turn. Is good and should do better. He has osslets which will trouble him on fast going. Sir Gawain disliked the damp going but ran a grand race. Is a good weight carrier and very game, but was unlucky. Poetess is not good yet. She quit badly after showing speed for three-quarters. She looks indifferent. Is very good in mud. Jefferson ran to his best form. Endeavor is of no earthly account.

Scratched—Rotterdam, 122; Linstock, 122; Lady Mitchell, 115; Alarum, 114.

Time, 12½, 24, 36½, 49½, 1:02.

Winner—B. c. by Kingston—Lady Ballard. Start straggling. Won easily. Kingdon, off poorly, was waited with under a big pull and galloped throughout. He is very good and likes the going. Dr. Parker, off last, got a bad ride but closed like a whirlwind. He was a good horse today and was also favored by the going. Muggins was an eased up third. He ran well but tired in the damp going. Is a very fair colt but must have a fast track. The Gardener wants a fast track. Is very ordinary. Chorus Boy is a good looker. He was short and was eased up the last eighth.

Scratched—Dr. Eichberg, 122; Queen's Badge, 114; Leando, 102; Sol, 102.

Time, 26, 51½, 1:17½, 1:43, 2:09½.

Winner—Ch. c. 3, by Potomac—Lavinia Belle. Start good. Won easily. Rappahannock was easily the best today, and is simply great within his capacity and in fair company over a distance. Dutch Skater had no chance with Collins up. He must have a strong and capable jockey. Is improving, and was a very good horse today. Merlin likes a shorter route and light weight. Was good for a mile.

Scratched—The Huguenot, 126; Poetess, 115.

IMP DEFEATS MACY.

George Rose said that there was more money in sight than on any day of the meeting. He won $3,000, although he bet $1,000 on Macy. Another bookmaker said: "This is what the public is looking for. Good fields make racing."

Dunois lowered the track record for fifteen-sixteenths of a mile from 1:34 to 1:33.

The entry of Dave Waldo in purse races at Washington Park will hereafter be refused, but he will be allowed to start in the two stakes for which he is engaged.

Caywood, Gray and McNickle have been suspended for two days by starter Dwyer for disobedience at the post.

Young Mr. Schorr was authority for the statement that T. Burns has been suspended for one week on account of disobedience to the starter while riding W. Overton, Thursday last. It seems Mr. Dwyer simply threatened punishment.

Charley Grossman, trainer of Imp, said: "Like the fellow who didn't play poker, there were thirteen reasons why I had no money to speak of on the filly. I told Caywood to ride her on Old Man Harper's system ('eend to eend'), and knowing that she didn't like the distance any too well, thought she could win by tiptoeing Macy all the way."

There was a report at the track yesterday that Jockey Tod Sloan is seriously ill of tonsillitis at New York City. He contracted the ailment July 4, when in the rain he rode Hamburg and Jean Beraud.

Sam Hildreth has bought for W. A. Pinkerton of L. A. Legg the horses Candleblack and Floronso for $5,000.

Goodrich's win was worth $1,980 to "Hops" Laudeman, who also held his horse out in his book and laid strongly against the favorite.

Captain Tom Hines, thought by many to be the wealthiest sporting man in Chicago, enjoyed the cool air.

Charles Green, formerly president of the St. Louis Jockey Club and one of the judges at Washington Park when was rendered the famous Baggage-Redlight decision, was a visitor.

After the Lew Hopper win Col. M. Lewis Clark showed a bundle of banknotes in the paddock, which, according to a facetious horseman, "Tennessee couldn't have jumped over."

Imp's time 1:54, tied the track record made by Fervor in this year's Oakwood Handicap, but, weight considered, the Harness mare has the better performance.

It is said that "Kid" Weller owns Boanerges, who ran in the name and colors of G. W. Poole.

Dave Waldo said in reference to the performance of his namesake, "I was told that the judges had the trainer, Ira Glasscock, up in the stand both before and after the race. 'Skeets' Martin, asked by the officials for an explanation, said the horse 'spraddled.' I knew the colt was far from good after he warmed up, although the boy that rode him his preliminary said he was all right. Why! he only worked in 14 seconds and a cab horse can almost do as well on that fast track. I know the colt cannot be beaten away from the post by anybody's horse when he is good, and here it took him sometime to land there. With 10 pounds less weight than on the day when he covered three-quarters in 1:12, he today did not run better than 1:16. The owner is out of town but my idea is that the heavy weight and delay of 22 minutes at the post on July 1 killed the colt. The hard track may have sored him up, and again he may have been improperly cooled out."

Winner—Br. f, 3, by Tom Ochiltree—Lizzie Tabor.

Start straggling. Won driving. Tabouret got the best handling and was lucky throughout. Is at her best and the distance suited her. She was stopping at the end. Athanas was nearly left at the post and was atrociously handled. He was easily the best, is good in mud and quite a horse anywhere. Prince Auckland liked the soft going. He appeared to be galloping the first half. He likes this track and was a very good horse. Rotterdam lacked speed throughout, and was a bad horse today. He is probably trained for a longer race and so has lost his turn of early speed. Squire Abingdon had no chance with the ride.

Scratched—Trillo, 106; The Governor, 106.

Winner—Ch. m, 5, by Exile—Forever.

Start good. Won easily. Forget outclassed her field and had nothing to bother her. Kinvarra is promising. He got a tough looking ride. His jockey made no effort to get up to Forget, keeping his horse under restraint. Beaumont is far from ready. The others are of no account apparently.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Iroquois—Bracelet.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. The first three were driving to the limit. It was a spectacular finish. Bangle ran a game race and was strongly ridden. Barrett took him in down the back stretch and thus avoided the early pace. He never made a move until the eighth pole, and then came with a rush. The Manxman ran his usual good race. He is more than a useful horse—can carry weight and has courage. He was worked out a mile in 1:42 after the race. Traverser seems to be getting good. He seemed to be winning at the sixteenth pole, but weakened right at the end. Hurly Burly and Dave Waldo raced each other to pieces the first five furlongs. Both tired badly and were staggering at the finish. The race caused considerable talk. From a time standpoint it should. Both Hurly Burly and Dave Waldo have run much faster with more weight up. This is one of the many queer things of horse racing, though.

Winner—Blk. f, 4, by Wagner—Fondling.
Off at first break. They were both together. It was a cracking good race. Imp is on edge again. This filly is certainly a speed marvel. She is about the best horse at the track. Caywood was laughing at Burns all the way. The filly is a public favorite and her win was by far the most popular one of the meeting. Macy is as game as they make them. He tried hard every inch of the way. He simply met his superior. Through the stretch he bore in a trifle, and three different times Burns had to lay his whip aside and straighten him out with his hands. Few horses after being carried so fast and getting the punishment this colt did would have stood it as gamely.

Winner—Ch. c, 3, by Patron—Edith Gray.
Off at first break to a good start. It was a terrific drive between three. As the race was run David Tenny was best. He lost ground on the turns, while Goodrich skinned the rails. This difference told a lot at the end. Both horses were magnificently ridden through the stretch. Goodrich seems to be greatly improved. He came from behind and stood Thorpe's powerful drive gamely. It was a very pretty race. Boanerges was in a very bad place last sixteenth. He was in between Goodrich and David Tenny. This prevented Caywood from helping him to any great extent when the pinch came. David Tenny is game. Martin was at work on him the last quarter. His ride was full of power, too. Martha II. shot her bolt early. Fonsavannah seemed stiff and sore in his preliminary and did not run his race.
Overweights—Martha II., 4 pounds.
